THE
Thirty-fifth Annual Report

OF THE
COMMITTEE OF MANAGEMENT

OF THE

Stawell Hospital and Benevolent Asylum.

FOR THE HALF-YEAR TO DECEMBER 31st, 1893.

To the Governors, Subscribers and Contributors of the Stawell Hospital and Benevolent Asylum.

YOUR Committee, in presenting their Thirty-fifth Annual Report, desire to offer you their hearty congratulations on the continued prosperity of your institution, notwithstanding the many difficulties and drawbacks it has had to contend with during the year that has just closed. Our financial position will, we feel sure, compare favorably at the present time with that of any similar institution in the colony. This satisfactory condition of affairs has been brought about mainly by the judicious retrenchment effected by your Committee after a very careful investigation into the internal working of the Hospital and Benevolent Asylum by a Sub-committee appointed for the purpose, who were assisted most loyally by the Resident Surgeon and Matron. Every item of expenditure has been curtailed wherever such could be done without impairing the efficiency and usefulness of the institution. Valuable aid has also been received from the local governing bodies, who, in response to an earnest appeal made by a deputation consisting of the ex-President, President, and Vice-President, most generously largely increased their donations. Furthermore, your Committee have not been called upon to expend any money in buildings or repairs during the past half-year. Material help has also been rendered by means of a series of entertainments which have been given by ladies and gentlemen for the benefit of the charity in Stawell and the surrounding districts. In evidence of the success that has attended the efforts of the Committee to curtail the expenses, we may mention that, while the number of inmates during the half-years ended 31st December, 1892 and 1893 respectively, has been practically the same, a saving has been effected in the maintenance for the latter half-year of upwards of £340. As the present Government is essentially one of retrenchment, there is a possibility of the grant for 1894 being reduced. Should such be the case, we sincerely trust that the Municipal Councils will again see their way clear to assist the institution by making up the deficiency. Such a course would, we feel sure, meet with the hearty approval of the general body of ratepayers in both Shire and Borough. The usual Balance-sheet for the half-year accompanies this report, from which you will learn full particulars as to receipts and expenditure. During the half-year 163 in-patients were admitted with a daily average of 44.35, whilst amongst out-patients 243 new cases were treated, whose attendances amounted to 704. The number of deaths that occurred amongst the inmates for the same period was 14, but of those who died it is only right to say that 8 were admitted in an absolutely hopeless condition, and succumbed within periods varying from a few hours to 3 days. While dealing with this part of our report, we desire to record our appreciation of the skill and deep interest displayed by the Resident Surgeon, Dr. Hopkins, in the discharge of his duties, also of the care and attention bestowed upon the patients by the Matron, Miss Sheedy, and the other members of the staff. We consider a word of praise is likewise due to our energetic and painstaking secretary, Mr. Playford. Your best thanks are again due to the proprietors of newspapers, donors of books, magazines, etc., and to many kind friends who have in a variety of ways endeavored to ameliorate the condition of the inmates. It is always a pleasure to chronicle the valuable services so willingly rendered at all times by the Honorary Surgeons, Drs. Syme and Napthine, to whom your warmest thanks are again due. We would once more remind the friends of the institution that they can render material assistance at small cost to themselves by making donations of old linen and calico, which are always in requisition by the patients. As our year of office terminates this evening, you will be called upon to elect Patrons, President, two Vice-Presidents, a board of management, and two auditors for the ensuing twelve months.

THOMAS GUILFOYLE,

PRESIDENT.

Supplementary Report.

FOR THE HALF-YEAR TO 30th JUNE, 1894.

“ SEPTEMBER, 1894.

“ To the Governors, Subscribers, and Contributors of the Stawell Hospital and Benevolent Asylum.

“ The complete nature of our report for the half-year ended 31st December, 1893, makes it unnecessary to trouble you with a lengthened statement in presenting the audited accounts and statistics of the Institution for 1893-94.

“ It is with pleasure that we invite attention to the receipts and expenditure of this year, when placed in comparison with those of 1892-93.

“ The actual earnings for the past 12 months were £1800 13s. 5d., as against £1835 11s. 9d. in 1892-93.

“ Thus, in spite of a reduction of the Government Grant of £250, our receipts have been nearly equal to that of the previous year. A result almost entirely due to the generosity of private subscribers and the municipalities — private subscriptions having risen from £383 11s. 8d. to £517 17s., and municipal donations from £126 to £206 5s. The fees from paying patients and the Hospital Sunday collections were also better than the previous year. On the other hand, Entertainments only yielded £109, as against £205 8s. 10d. in 1892-93.

“ Looking at the expenditure, it will be observed that while there was an increase in the daily average of in-patients from 42·73 to 47·6, yet the actual cost of maintenance was much less than the previous year (£1482 8s. 3d., as against £1959 15s. 3d.).

“ The savings effected will be at once appreciated when it is pointed out that the cost per head, which in 1892-93 was £44 3s. 5d.,

in 1893-94 fell to £32 4s. 9d., the lowest average reached for many years. Bearing in mind the fact that the colony is at present passing through a financial crisis, which has been disastrous to so many of her institutions, and being cognizant that this Hospital has suffered a severe reduction in the Government Grant, you will, doubtless, examine our annual statement of accounts with more than usual interest. We feel assured it will be a source of gratification for you to find that not only is there no deficiency, but that we carry forward a substantial credit balance for the year 1894-95. But while the Hospital is in a sound position for the time being, your committee cannot help feeling that the uncertainty as to the financial support which the various charities of the colonies receive from year to year, is a standing menace to the welfare and stability of these institutions. In accordance with these sentiments we were glad to join recently with a number of other hospitals in urging upon members of Parliament the importance of pressing on the new Charities Bill. The nature of this Bill has not yet transpired. It is to be hoped, however, that it will embrace a carefully considered scheme, suited to meet the complicated conditions of modern charity, or, at least, remove some of that constant anxiety as to income, which at present seems inseparable from hospital management. Your institution has lost two valued supporters by death since our last report—Mr. Alexander Brown, for many years treasurer, and Mr. Edmund C. Grant. The latter gentleman, as patron and life-governor, has been associated with the charity almost from its inception. The services he has rendered in this and in other fields of philanthropy are not likely to be forgotten by the community amongst whom he lived. In asking for your continued support to an institution so essential to the welfare of the district, we need hardly say that it will be our constant endeavor to maintain the Hospital with a due regard to those twin principles of efficiency and economy which should mark the government of all public institutions, and of which—in our own case—we trust that the year just passed affords no unworthy illustration.

“JOSEPH J. PAWSEY,

“President.”

RULES

OF THE

Stawell Hospital and Benevolent Asylum.

1. The Hospital and Benevolent Asylum will afford gratuitously surgical and medical aid, and maintenance to any poor person requiring them, irrespective of creed, country or color; but any person who shall be admitted, under any circumstances, and shall be found able to pay, shall be required to do so. Paying patients may be received, under certain conditions, according to the Bye-laws.

2. The institutions shall be managed by the Patrons, President, two Vice-presidents, five Trustees, an Honorary Treasurer, the Honorary Surgeons, and a Committee of Management not exceeding twenty-four, twelve of whom shall be residents of outlying districts. The above-named officers, with the exception of Treasurer and Trustees, shall be elected annually, at the Annual General Meeting, in the month of January in each year, by duly qualified Subscribers. The Committee to be elected shall be nominated at or before such meeting, but nominations cannot be received (except for members of the outlying districts) without the consent of the person nominated.

3. Should a vacancy occur in any of the above-named offices, it shall be filled at the then or next ensuing General Meeting of Subscribers; but in all cases, except those of Treasurer or Trustees, the Board is empowered to temporarily fill the vacancy.

4. The duly qualified electors shall at each annual General Meeting appoint two Auditors, not members of the Board, to examine the accounts; but in case either such Auditors neglect or refuse to perform his duty, the Board is empowered to temporarily appoint another Auditor or Auditors. And also it shall be competent for the President, or in his absence, a Vice-president, at the request of not less than ten duly qualified Subscribers, to convene by advertisement a meeting of Subscribers at any time for the purpose of electing Auditors if any emergency arise to warrant the same.

5. The Board of Management shall include all officers named in the second rule; it shall direct the collection and distribution of funds; appoint and dismiss all paid officers and servants; frame regulations for the management of the Institution; present a report to the Annual General Meeting; and conduct the affairs of the institution generally; and may from among themselves, from time to time, appoint committees for any purpose, which in their opinion would be better regulated and managed by means of such committees; and it may fix the quorum of such committees and may continue, alter, or discontinue such committees.

6. The Board shall meet for general business once at least in each month, and for special business whenever requisite, such meetings to be convened by the Secretary at any time or place that may be ordered by the Board, the President, a Vice-president, or upon the requisition of not less than three members of the Board. At any meeting seven members shall form a quorum, and in the absence of the President or Vice-presidents, one of the members present shall be elected to act as chairman.
